

GREAT COINS

FROM JEFF GARRETT—THE EXPERT'S EXPERT

"Jeff's advice has made me tens of thousands of dollars." —BH, Georgia

JEFF GARRETT, author of United States Coinage: A Study By Type and The Encyclopedia of U.S. Gold, 1795-1933, knows a thing or two about great coins.

The rare coin market has softened in the last several months and now may be the best time in years to acquire a selection of truly great coins. For the last decade, no segment of the market has performed better than truly special rare coins. Many of Jeff's clients have made spectacular gains!

JEFF GARRETT
PNG #329 • ANA LM #3124

Knowledge is the foundation of Jeff's business. With more than 35 years of experience, Jeff can help you make sound buying and selling decisions. Decisions based on knowledge and research—not hype. Call Jeff today to find out why his numismatic advice is sought by rare coin dealers, museums, financial institutions, and collectors.

WHAT JEFF'S CLIENTS ARE SAYING:

"Jeff always has the answer!" —LL, Florida

"Honesty, integrity define my experience with Jeff." —LK, Texas

"Fastest bank wires in the business!" —MC, California

Book image courtesy of Whitman Publishing, LLC.

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

1861 Clark-Gruber Pattern Set

This incredible set surfaced at this year's ANA convention in Los Angeles. Just a few of each have been graded by NGC and the price of these fascinating coins would be mid-six figures in the gold format, even though the gold version is much more common. The set consists of the following: 1861 Copper $5 Clark-Gruber K-10C Gilt (NGC MS60), 1861 Copper $10 Clark-Gruber K-11B (NGC MS61), 1861 Copper $20 Clark-Gruber K-12C Gilt (NGC MS62—finest graded). A well-matched set and a bargain at only $18,750.

1707 Nicholasville Road • Lexington, Kentucky 40503 • Tel 859-276-1551

www.rarecoingallery.com • coinman4u@aol.com

